

Pomona Ridge Ramblers

Hard-driving bluegrass and old-time from the hills south of Carbondale.

“The Ramblers were the surprise of the festival.” — Sundown in the Shawnee

Bio

Banjo, fiddle, mandolin, guitar, and upright bass gathered around one microphone. The Ramblers play traditional bluegrass, gospel numbers, and a few originals about Union County orchards. Festival favorites and winery regulars, the band is equally happy on a big stage or a hay wagon.
